

Poetry Rough Draft

Types of Poems:

Acrostic: A poem uses the letters in a topic word to begin each line. All lines of the poem should relate to or describe the poem.

Shines brightly
Up in the sky
Nice and warm on my skin

Haiku: is a popular form of unrhymed Japanese poetry, which evolved in the 17th century. Haikus contain three lines totaling 17 syllables in a 5-7-5 pattern.

Litany: Poems that begin each line with the same phrase

I remember the day I heard the news
I remember the look on my mom's face
I remember how hollow I felt
I remember wanting night to come

Concrete Poem: A poem that looks like its subject

Free Verse Poems: A form of poetry that refrains from consistent meter patterns, rhyme, or any other pattern. (All of the above poems are types of free verse poetry)

Create a poem for your multi-genre project. Your poem may take any form. It should add another element or dimension to your multi-genre project.
